

Tahiti Sightseeing

What better way to spend your Tahitian vacation than with a tropical cocktail in one hand, a good book in the other while you bask on a whitesand beach overlooking the turquoise water?

Should you want to get out and about and discover the natural landscapes then perhaps look at booking a sightseeing tour!

Take a Circle Island Tour on Papeete, snorkel with stingrays in Moorea or cruise to a quiet motu for a romantic lunch.

There is something for everyone in Tahiti.

PAPEETE

Donut Boat - 3-hour Excursion

Discover Polynesian lagoons on a donut boat! A traditional welcome awaits with a necklace of flowers, accompanied by a fresh coconut to quench your thirst. Snorkeling equipment is included to explore the site's multi-colored fish that live within the 3 wrecks located at the bottom of the lagoon. Quench those hunger pains or thirst with a catered menu and enjoy the freshest local, seasonal fruits plus fresh drinks while on the water (additional cost). A special shell necklace waits for you on your return to land, plus a very special surprise souvenir to remember the day.

Moorea Tama's Street Food Tour

Step into the slippers (flip-flops) of a local and join us as we snack our way around Moorea. Tama'a means to eat in Tahitian and we will be doing just that as you and your taste buds discover Moorea. During your food tour you will taste and visit authentic local finds that will offer unique flavors where locals like to eat. The food in Tahiti consists of three cultures, Tahitian, Chinese, and French. On the Tama'a tour we will seek out hidden food gems from all three of these backgrounds. We will be tasting a diversity of food and drinks such as local seasonal fruits, casse-croute, fish dishes, pai, mape, and other delicious local snacks that stem from the three cultures that make up French Polynesia today

Dinner at Bloody Mary's

Bloody Mary's is a thatched roof enclosed restaurant where you can draw pictures in the white sand with your toes. Footwear is optional at this famous Bora Bora landmark. You can actually check your shoes at the door. The atmosphere may be likened to an upscale setting of "Gilligan's Island", minus the Professor and Ginger, but with no shortage of coconuts; all the furniture is made of coconut palm lumber. The restaurant is known for its exceptional seafood, the unique visual menu and Polynesian décor. Established in 1979 as a small 5 table restaurant, Bloody Mary's has grown through the years to its present size by caring people from all over the world.
